VOL. XXVI

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1919.

NO. 49

ACCUSES JUDGE AND OTHERS OF FRAUD

SUIT FILED BY MRS. McCARTHY INVOLVES SUPERIOR JUDGE, FORMER HUSBAND, BANK OF ITALY, AND OTHERS.

Mrs. Mayzella Ann Thompson McCarthy, society matron and club-woman on the peninsula, filed suit in the superior court at Redwood City Wednesday against Superior Judge George H. Buck of San Mateo county, Dr. Charles F. McCarthy, her divorced husband, and others, seeking recovery of property in San Mateo county and $20,000 damages.

Mrs. McCarthy's complaint is filled with allegations charging Judge Buck with aiding in fraudulent contrivances, and includes George W. Hall, brother-in-law of Dr. McCarthy and trustee of the property, involves Attorney A. Kincaid and the Bank of Italy as parties to a "wicked, unlawful and fraudulent conspiracy." The complaint was filed by Attorney Byron C. Parker, with her son, Francis, as joint plaintiff.

Calls Judge Cruel

The suit comes as an added chapter to previous episodes in the matrimonial differences between Dr. McCarthy and his wife that have caused turmoil in peninsula society. In her complaint Mrs. McCarthy reviews her five-day imprisonment last month in the San Mateo county jail by Judge Buck for contempt of court she is alleged to have committed seventeen months ago, and calls Judge Buck's action "capricious, cruel, arbitrary and unjust."

Mrs. McCarthy charges that when she obtained her divorce from Dr. McCarthy on February 23, 1917, she did not know of the decree or of its provisions in respect of property settlement, as she was changing attorneys at the time, and recites that she had been promised no action would be taken until she had been informed. The court did not inform her of any action, she asserts.

She Accuses Buck

That Judge Buck forced her to sign a document conveying certain property to George W. Hall, brother-in-law of Dr. McCarthy, and trustee of the property, is another allegation made by Mrs. McCarthy in her complaint. She charges that Judge Buck told her she must "sign or go to jail," and that on September 5, 1918, she executed and delivered the document, but that her action was not a "free act and deed, but was extorted from her by coercion and duress."

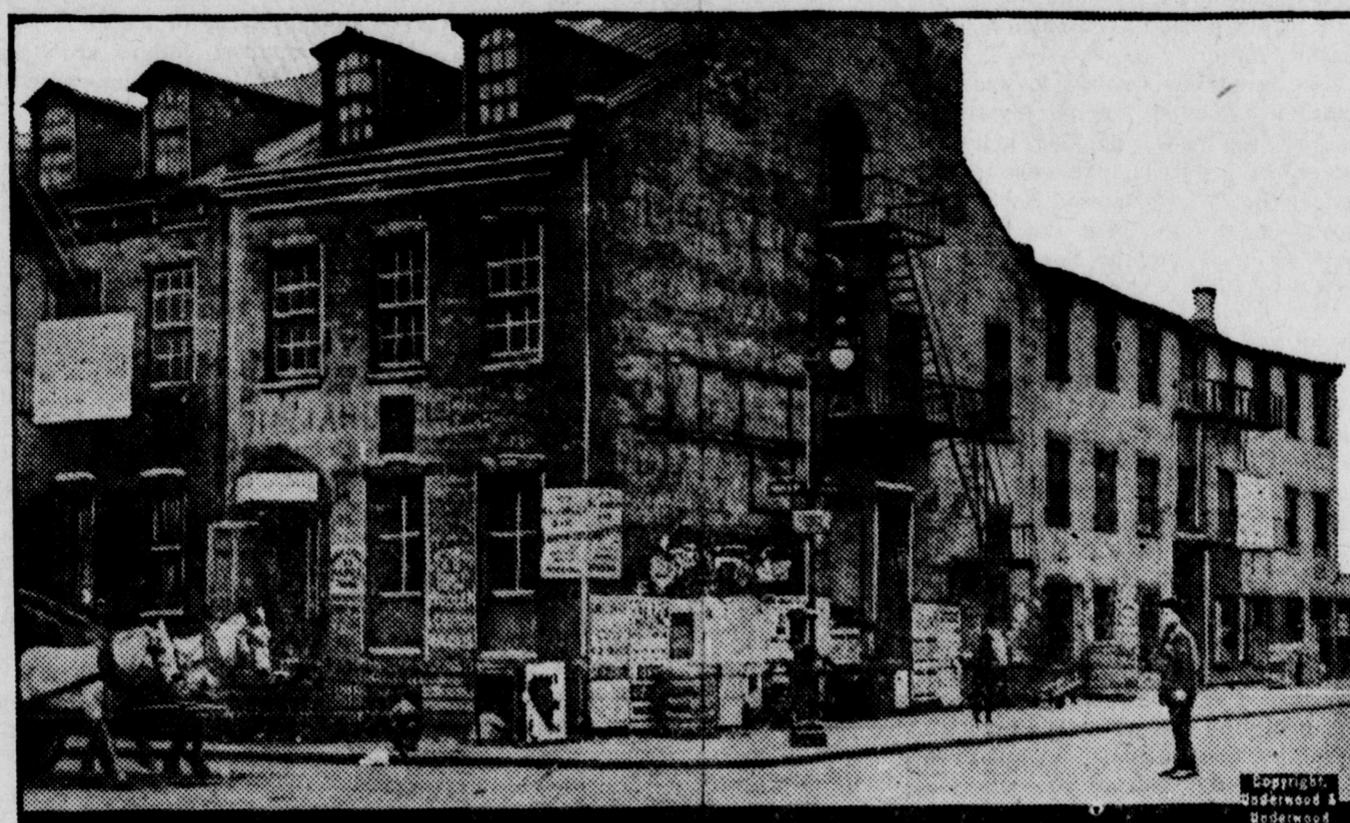

The Bank of Italy was made a party to the suit because of its purchase of certain property of the McCarthys. The bank filed suit to quiet title, and to this suit Mrs. McCarthy filed an answer and cross-complaint.

Married in 1903

The McCarthys were married in Oroville on April 18, 1903. In December, 1906, Dr. McCarthy declared a homestead on the property at 84 Santa Inez avenue. McCarthy deeded the property to his brother-in-law, George W. Hall, supervising principal of San Mateo schools, on February 17, 1914, in trust for his son. McCarthy was in India at the time of the divorce.

Mrs. McCarthy has made the following statement: "I have been hounded and persecuted. At no time have I received justice from a court. This is my final hope of obtaining fair dealing, and I am hoping that the

HOME OF PRESIDENT MONROE IS SOLD AT AUCTION

The last abiding place of President James Monroe, one of the famous New York landmarks, has just been sold at public auction. The house is situated at the northwest corner of Prince and Lafayette streets, and was built in 1823.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

Talk on Americanization Delivered by Club Official; Local Club Will Take Up Work.

The Woman's Club held its second regular meeting of the club year Thursday afternoon in the reading room of the Y. M. C. A. In spite of the weather, there was an attendance of thirty.

Mrs. C. H. Godfrey of Burlingame, district chairman of the civic department, California Federated Women's Clubs, addressed the meeting. Her general subject was Americanization, and she gave the club some practical ideas concerning the work in South San Francisco. Her talk brought out the fact that not only must we Americanize the foreigners, but that they contribute to our civilization. In other words, they have a message to bring to us as well.

The president, Mrs. Lillian Walker, will appoint some club member chairman of this important new work. The club wants to co-operate with the Y. M. C. A., the schools, and various other bodies.

After the general routine of business was transacted, an interesting musical program was given by Elizabeth Coffinberry, Eleanor Hynding, Jack Peck, Althea Spangler, and Laura Baldini. Refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned.

The next meeting will be held the first Thursday in January in the Fraternal Hall at the usual time, 2 p. m. The club feels very grateful to the Y. M. C. A. for allowing the use of the reading room until a definite meeting place could be decided upon. Mrs. E. C. Peck, chairman of the program committee, will announce the program at a later date.

RED MEN TO PLAY WHIST.

The local lodge of Red Men has arranged for a big whist party to be given at Fraternal Hall in this city next Thursday night. The first prize for the card players is to be a twelve-pound turkey. Other valuable prizes will be given.

courts will see the merits of my contentions. It was most humiliating to me to have to go to jail for a matter in which I was unjustly treated, but I know that right is on my side and that I eventually will win."

BANK OF ITALY WANTS CITY BONDS

FOR SECOND TIME EXPRESSES WILLINGNESS TO MAKE BID FOR $129,000 ISSUE OF THIS CITY; OFFER IS REFUSED.

For the second time the Bank of Italy has expressed a willingness to make bid for part or all of the $129,000 bond issue of South San Francisco. This occurred at the meeting of the board of trustees Monday night. A Mr. Myers, representative of the bank, declared before the board that he was present to make a bid for the bonds, but as future procedure concerning the building of the city hall is still undecided the board were unanimous in the opinion that nothing would be gained at present by considering Mr. Myers' offer.

At the time the bids for the bonds were first opened but one offer was received, that being from the William Staats Company of San Francisco. The bid was refused, and since that time offers to submit propositions for part or all of the issue have been received from a number of sources.

All city trustees were present at Monday night's meeting, but only routine business was transacted. The only divergence from the beaten path of trustees' proceedings was in the ratification by the board of the appointment of six deputy city marshals for service at the shipyard. The six officers were sworn in Monday by City Clerk W. J. Smith.

MORE TAX MONEY THAN USUAL PAID THIS YEAR

Tax money has been paid more freely this year than on previous years, according to City Clerk W. J. Smith, who is deputy tax collector. Over 70 per cent of the entire assessment roll of $38,128.14 has been handed in through the little wicket gate at the city hall. A considerable number more than in former years have paid both installments at one payment. The celerity with which the tax money appeared this year would indicate that money is more than usually plentiful.

OPERETTA TO BE GIVEN BY STUDENTS

"Love Pirates of Hawaii" to Be Presented at High School, Thursday, December 18th.

The students of the South San Francisco high school will present Mr. Carrington's operetta, "Love Pirates of Hawaii," December 18th, in the high school auditorium. The scene is laid in a girls' seminary in Hawaii. Billy Wood, a young lieutenant from the U. S. cruiser Tennessee, disguised as a pirate, plans to visit Dorothy Dear, attending the school. Miss Primer, the principal, finds the note which tells of the plan, and captures a band of real pirates, thinking they are men from the Tennessee. The pirate chief falls in love with Miss Primer, reforms, but is captured by Billy Wood.

Beatrice Eikerenkotter will have the lead as Dorothy Dear, a vivacious American girl. She is in contrast to the dreamy, musical Hawaiians. Billy Wood will be played by James McMillis.

Bernice Holbrook, as Miss Primer, and Darell Dart, as the pirate chief, furnish the fun. Reese Lloyd plays the part of the unlucky pirate, Scary.

Margaret Carmody, Lucile Strand, Edith Broner, Josephine Pene and Eleanor Boyle take the part of Hawaiian girls. Eleanor Boyle will sing several solos.

The cast includes the chorus of pirates, Haydn McMillis, Theodore Fischer, Raymond Spangler, Leo Murray, Charles Robinson, Charles Dunlap, Thomas Doak, Jud Bills, Albert Beltrami, George Arminino, James Diggles, Aurelio Blery, Elmer Vaccari, Jack Bonalanza, and John Foraker; and the chorus of Hawaiian girls, Alma Stahl, Hilda Elmers, Sarah May Doak, Ruth McMillis, Bernice Farrell, Elsie Hage, Anna Smith, Marcella Dowd, Marguerite Kessling, Nellie Bortoli, Alice Kavanagh, Elsa Van Tassel, Myrtle Mullin, Rosalind Gsell, Evelyn Ferrario, Lottie Empena, Georgette Quinlan, Grace Robinson, Anna Wilson, and Ellen McConnell.

Practice has been going on regularly for some time under the direction of Miss Clifford, and strenuous practice during the next two weeks will see the operetta ready for production Thursday evening, December 18th. The young people bespeak the attendance of all of their friends in the city.

OFFICIALS ACT TO SAVE CO. PAVING

NEW ORDINANCE SETS LIMIT OF EIGHT TONS FOR TRUCK AND LOAD ON BAY SHORE RD. FROM THIS CITY TO SAN FRANCISCO.

At their meeting Monday the county supervisors adopted a new county ordinance that is of especial interest to residents of this region. The ordinance restricts the loads that may be hauled over Bay Shore road and several other county boulevards. The weight of trucks with their loads that may now lawfully be driven over the Bay Shore road from South San Francisco to the San Francisco county line is limited to eight tons. A maximum weight for truck and load for other San Mateo county roads is set at seven tons. These other stretches to which the seven-ton maximum weight applies are as follows:

Alpine road, La Honda-San Gregorio road, Portola to Menlo Park road, coast road from a point near Colma to the Santa Cruz county line, Belmont to Halfmoon Bay road, County Farm road and Beresford to Redwood City road on east side of railroad.

Supervisor Francis was absent when the vote was taken, the ordinance being adopted by a vote of 3 to 1, Supervisors Brown, Hickey, and McBain voting in favor of the measure. Dr. C. V. Thompson of Pescadero voting against it.

The object of the ordinance is to protect the costly paving from damage or ruin by the great weights often hauled over it. A great deal of hauling to and from San Francisco passes over the Bay Shore road, and it has frequently come to the attention of the supervisors that unless some of the tremendous weights were cut out the roads would soon begin to suffer, with a resulting heavy expense to the county for repairs.

Another matter brought to the attention of the board at Monday's meeting was the danger to traffic caused by a large tree that stands in the middle of the road between Third and Fifth avenues in San Mateo. The supervisors directed County Clerk Elizabeth M. Nash to find out if the board has jurisdiction over this portion of the road. If the clerk's finding is favorable to such action, it is expected the board will order the tree's removal.

WILL APPEAR FOR FIRST CITIZENSHIP PAPERS

The following foreign residents of this city will appear before Judge Buck in Redwood City December 30th to undergo examination for first citizenship papers: Angelo Genovesi, 25 Aspen avenue; Enrico Rosetti, 16 Maple avenue; Umberto Lucatsi, 627 Baden avenue; Louis Goursau, 709 Olive avenue; Alcide Mutti, 514 Miller avenue; Louis Battany, Cypress avenue.

LOCAL WRITER COMING RAPIDLY TO THE FRONT

The December number of the Grizzly Bear Magazine, out this week, contains some verses, entitled "A Question," by Viola Ransom Wood of this city. Mrs. Wood is also being congratulated upon having had a short story accepted recently by an Eastern magazine—a goal to which all Western writers aspire.

ELKS PLAN ANNUAL LODGE OF SORROW

The annual memorial service of San Mateo Lodge, No. 1112, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will be held next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the Elks' building. This lodge of sorrow is an institution with the order and is held by every lodge throughout the United States on the first Sunday of December of each year.

An excellent program of music has been arranged for the services. Lester Waterman will be director of the orchestra, and the musical numbers will include a baritone solo, "Fear Not, O Israel," by Jean Edwin Cowles, and a contralto solo, "The Lord Is My Light," by Mrs. Fred Birlem.

The ceremonies will be conducted by Exalted Ruler J. E. McCurdy and officers of the lodge. The ritual for the memorial includes an oration in commemoration of the departed members of the order. The orator of the day will be Samuel M. Shortridge.

The committee that has charge of arrangements for the exercises is composed of E. L. Hoag, Martin Poss and William D. Shawhan. The services will be open to the public.

W. H. WOOD NARROWLY ESCAPES AUTO ACCIDENT

W. H. Wood, father of H. B. Wood, chief electrician of the Western Meat Company, had a narrow escape from injury when returning from Fresno, where he had spent the Thanksgiving week-end with relatives. In trying to avoid a Stutz touring car which was being driven at a reckless rate of speed, Mr. Wood drove his Overland roadster off the highway, down an 18-foot embankment, through a barbed-wire fence, finally coming to a stop, right side up, in a plowed field. Neither he nor the machine was injured. The only damage done was to the fence, five redwood posts having been broken off flush with the ground when the roadster plunged through the barbed wire.

SAN FRANCISCO RECRUITS MANY MEN FOR ARMY

San Francisco has thrown its hat into the recruiting ring and is rapidly forging ahead, according to information received from the War Department by the Army Recruiting News Service at 660 Market street.

San Francisco has maintained fourth place on the national list of men recruited until the issuance of last week's Army Bulletin, which shows that for the week ending November 8th New York led by sending 302 men to the receiving barracks and San Francisco came second by sending 117 men.

Records at the army recruiting office show that up to midnight of November 23d, 78 recruits were "sworn in" for the month of November and sent to the various receiving barracks and organizations in the San Francisco district. Grim determination is evidenced by the members of the army recruiting party of San Francisco to capture first place in the race for recruits.

More than 75 per cent of the men enlisted have stated that they have enlisted because of the remarkable educational advantages offered by the United States army, according to advices from the Army Recruiting News Service.

A GRIMLY AMUSING ERROR.

An error in the spelling of Aviation Corps on the bulletin board in front of the Y. M. C. A. last Friday, created smiles on the faces of some of the passers by who stopped to read, and undoubtedly discouraged any budding desires for flying among the superstitious believers in prophetic warnings, omens, and the like.

After announcing this was "The chance of a lifetime" to take an aero trip over the town, the bulletin board said: "The driver is a man from South San Francisco, who has seen active service in France in the Aviation Corps."

At the rate the colleges are enrolling students, congress should appoint a committee to investigate the feasibility of enlarging the football teams.

LOCAL COMPANY INCLUDED IN FEDERAL COMPLAINT

Formal complaints were issued in Washington Thursday by the Federal Trade Commission charging the five big Chicago meat packers with violation of the Clayton anti-trust act through the alleged purchase and control of thirty-one corporations handling food and other supplies. Written answer to the complaints must be made within forty days and thereafter public hearing will be had before the commission.

Concerns which the packers are accused of absorbing include meat packers, fruit canners, dealers in eggs and poultry and dealers in and manufacturers of butter, cheese, oleomargarine, condensed milk and like products, catsups and condiments and leather tanners.

The complaints, which, it was announced, grew out of the investigation of the meat packing industry ordered by congress, also were issued against the United Dressed Beef Company, the Western Meat Company of San Francisco, and the Nevada Packing Company.

DON'T BE ALARMED AT REPORT OF GUNS

Residents of South San Francisco and vicinity are warned not to be alarmed next week if they hear the pounding of huge guns in the direction of Golden Gate. It will not mean a foreign invasion, but preparations of the coast defense guards to repel such invasion should it ever be attempted. The nights of Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday next week have been chosen for the annual target practice for the big coast defense guns at Fort Winfield Scott. During the practice patrol boats will be on duty warning all vessels out of the paths of the mighty projectiles. Searchlights will be kept constantly playing out over the sea in the direction of the targets.

PHELAN TO BE OPPOSED BY "DRY" CANDIDATE

Will California elect a "dry" United States senator next year to succeed Senator Phelan? This question is now receiving the attention of the national prohibition organizations, of which there are half a dozen represented in the national capital, according to an announcement given out by the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. It is said that the "drys" will be on guard in every senatorial and congressional district in the United States ready to combat any effort to elect a wet congress, which might very easily break down the enforcement of national prohibition by making legal the sale of beverages containing more than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol.

The California senatorship promises to attract attention as a strictly wet and dry fight, with Representative Charles H. Randall of Los Angeles, the only prohibitionist in congress, pitted against a field of wet candidates. Randall's political status is unparalleled in American history. Thrice elected to the House of Representatives on a strictly wet and dry issue from California, his short service has been coincident with the enactment of practically all the prohibition legislation ever passed in congress. In fact, he is the original author of the war prohibition amendment which put the United States in the dry column last July. His name is a household word among "dry" workers, Women's Christian Temperance Union members, and in church circles all over the country.

ENTERTAIN WHIST CLUB.

The Whist Club met at the E. N. Brown home Thursday evening. There was a good attendance in spite of the inclement weather. The prizes were won as follows: First, Mrs. W. J. Martin; second, A. McSweeney; third, Mrs. A. Hynd.

Pythons have been marked down to $50 in London, offering a fine substitute for oxtail soup.

Pershing never claimed any special credit for himself; wherefore he is entitled to it the more.

WIFE WOODED IN BUGGY WON AGAIN IN PLANE

The following news item in Wednesday's Chronicle was read with a good deal of interest by residents of this city, many of whom know Mr. and Mrs. Melendy, who formerly lived in South San Francisco:

"Redwood City, Dec. 2.—Lynn E. Melendy wooed and won his wife, Clara, five years ago while buggy riding. Yesterday he did it over again, using an aeroplane, and she has withdrawn her suit for divorce. When they left their little Midwest town and came to California, Melendy entered the air pilot's profession and became an instructor at the Redwood aviation school. Some time ago Mrs. Melendy filed a suit for divorce on the ground of cruelty. Yesterday he persuaded her to go for a spin through the clouds. When they came down she hurried right over to the courthouse and withdrew her suit for divorce. 'And we'll live happily ever after,' she said."

BUILD LARGE GARAGE.

The E. C. Peck Investment Company has just finished the construction of a large garage and storeroom at the rear of its office in the Martin building. The structure has stalls for six machines, a commodious store-room being built on one end.

American credit is expected to save Europe. Meanwhile some Americans are wondering if they have enough credit to save them from the grocer and butcher.

MOOSE TO HAVE BIG TREE FOR CHRISTMAS

At their last meeting the Loyal Order of Moose passed a resolution effective at once to change their meeting night from Thursday to Tuesday, also the hour from 8 p. m. to 7:30 p. m.

Final arrangements were made for the kiddies' Christmas tree.

This is going to be one of the grandest affairs of its kind ever held in South San Francisco.

On Tuesday evening, December 23d, a fine entertainment will be given in Fraternal Hall by the Moose lodge. A large Christmas tree will be displayed and all members' children will be given presents free of charge.

Several hundred dollars are being spent by the local order for the benefit of the children.

All members and families are requested to come. A treat for young and old.

TWO NEW WESTERN MEAT COMPANY EMPLOYEES

Patrick Bowler and I. S. Boyer, well-known local young men and employees at the plant office of the Western Meat Company, have both been wearing more than ordinarily expansive smiles since Wednesday of this week for the reason that a new baby has arrived in the home of each. It was a son at the Boyer home, a daughter at that of Mr. and Mrs. Bowler.

TRADE IN YOUR HOME TOWN.

HIGH COURT RULINGS ON NEWSPAPER SUBSCRIPTIONS

Few readers of newspapers and periodicals fully and clearly understand the laws governing subscriptions. Below are the decisions of the supreme court of the United States on the subject:

"Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscription."

"If subscribers order a discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until dues are paid."

"If subscriber continues to take the periodical from the postoffice to which they are directed, he is responsible until he has settled his bill and ordered the paper discontinued."

"If the subscriber has moved to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, the subscriber is held responsible."

"The courts have held that refusing to take periodicals from the postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intention to defraud."

"If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until express notice with payment of all arrearages is sent to the publisher."—Daly City Record.

At any rate, the profiteer is modest about his accomplishment.

Holiday Fun With Shadows for Youngsters

By A. NEELY HALL

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

Every boy likes to give home entertainments, and probably the best time of the year is right now during the holidays when grandmother and grandfather have come to visit, and an appreciative audience is at hand. There are so many things for a boy to do during this vacation, however, that there is little time to prepare an entertainment, so I shall show you how to give a shadow exhibition, as this can be arranged in a short time.

It requires only a few minutes to get the knack of shadow making, and after you have tried out the forms in the accompanying illustrations you will find it easy to devise others.

The shadows must be cast upon a sheet, and the audience must be seated on one side of this, and the operator stand on the other side. It is best to hang the sheet in a doorway so the light by which the shadows are made can be confined to the screen, because the room in which the audience are seated must be dark. By hanging a dark cloth over the upper and lower portions of the doorway the area of the picture screen can be reduced to just the size necessary, and the covered lower portion will conceal the shadow of the boy performer's body (Fig. 1). The light for projecting shadows must be placed about five feet in back of the screen.

Figs. 1 and 2 show a rabbit shadow, and how the hands are held to produce it. Interlock your little fingers, then slide the back of your left hand over on to the back of your right hand. Form the nose and head by doubling back the first finger of the left hand, and the ears by extending the second and third fingers, and extend the thumb and first three fingers of the right hand for the feet. By wiggling the first finger the rabbit can be made to nibble.

The alligator shadow (Fig. 3) is a one-hand shadow made with the aid of two pieces of cardboard notched along their edges to form teeth (Fig. 4). Fig. 3 shows how the teeth are held between the extended fingers, and how the alligator's eye is formed by light passing through an opening between the first and second fingers. With your free hand give the alligator things to eat. His eating will greatly amuse your audience. With modifications, a snake's head can be formed with your arm extended for its body.

Fig. 5 shows a wolf's head, and Fig. 6 a donkey's. Both are formed by placing the palms of the hands together, with thumbs up for ears, the first fingers drawn in for the forehead, and the little fingers dropped for the lower jaw. These shadows are a good example of how different figures are produced by extending or bending the fingers.

The duck's head (Fig. 7) is a simple one-hand shadow. By dropping and

Dainty Little Christmas Gifts in Cretonne

By DOROTHY PERKINS

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

Dainty gifts covered in cretonne are certain to find a welcome in any household, and such a variety of things can be made that you will have no difficulty in filling a want of each one whom you wish to remember on Christmas day.

The unique pair of book ends in Fig. 1 are made of syrup cans. The secret of making satisfactory book ends is to properly weight them so they will not upset, and the book ends illustrated are weighted by filling the cans with sand.

Cretonne with small patterns is the most desirable for small articles, and patterns with dark backgrounds are preferable for articles such as the book ends, which are likely to soil through much handling. Sew a piece of cretonne around the sides of each can, then by means of a gathering string gather the cloth as indicated in Fig. 1. Sew a fancy button, or a cretonne covered button, to the center of the top.

Fig. 2 shows a handy twine holder made of a syrup can. A hole must be pierced through the exact center of the can bottom as an outlet for the string (A, Fig. 3), and holes one-half inch apart must be pierced through the top rim to provide a means of fastening the top edge of the cretonne. The holes can be perforated by means of a nail and hammer. Gather the cretonne on the bottom, and turn the top edge over the rim and sew through the perforations in the rim.

Make a hanger for the twine holder out of cretonne or ribbon.

The hanging workbox in Fig. 4 requires a square cardboard box. Remove two adjacent sides of both the box and cover (Fig. 5), then stitch the cover to the box (Fig. 6). The cretonne may either be stitched over the open edges of the box, or be glued to the cardboard. Sew a doubled strip of cretonne, or a ribbon, to the open corners for a hanger.

The dainty telephone book in Fig. 7 provides a handy directory for numbers used frequently, and numbers which may be wanted quickly in cases of emergency. The covers are of cardboard 6 inches wide and 8 inches long, and are hinged together by the cre-

WHITE PLAGUE MORE DANGEROUS THAN HUNS

From the November issue of "World's Work":

THE TUBERCULOSIS CHALLENGE.

"The National Tuberculosis Association is engaged in a battle in which it will be successful only in the degree that it is persistent. The campaign faces much-goaded popular sensations which are resolved to relax at any cost, and thus it finds the task more difficult. Because the 'white plague' lacks sensational elements it does not command attention, and many people think that the subject does not concern them. But we felt a certain concern when the Germans were accounting for the deaths of some 60,000 Americans—how, then, should we feel toward the enemy at home which, during the same period of time, took toll of 150,000 American lives? The good-natured public is slow to wrath, but slower still to comprehend the truth when doing so requires it to change established notions. It is high time that we set ourselves right and realize that tuberculosis claims a victim out of every three persons who die between the ages of 18 and 45—the productive time of life. It is estimated that the economic waste from the disease in the United States is $500,000,000 annually. The fight against this ravager is more than a question of health—it is one of economics and production as well. And there is a good prospect of making progress against the disease. That tuberculosis is both curable and preventable has been established beyond doubt by science. We cannot afford to ignore the challenge.

"This year, through the influence of war, the United States is faced with an unprecedented shortage of homes—a shortage which makes overcrowding in our cities more intense. Tuberculosis thrives in a crowd; bad air and unsanitary conditions make it flourish. But science offers methods which will more than offset the handicap, and it only remains for the public to support the organizations which use the power of science. Red Cross Christmas Seals will soon be here, and their sales will register the amount of fight which the public is resolved to subscribe during the coming year."

S. F. CROWDS N. Y. FOR RECRUITING HONORS

Most folks were skeptical and said she couldn't do it, and just to show the doubting Tommies that she could, San Francisco is runnin' the heels off of New York in the great national competition for first honors in recruiting for the army, according to information received from the War Department by the Army Recruiting News Service at 660 Market street.

Last week's Army Bulletin showed New York swinging ahead with a lead of quite a number, having to her credit 302 recruits for the various branches, and San Francisco had but 117. All the other of the fifty-seven main stations in the United States are doing quite well, but none of them has a record big enough to compete with San Francisco and New York.

All the striking in the world won't put more purchasing power into a dollar.

CONTRIBUTED TO A GOOD CAUSE.

In another column of today's Enterprise will be found a large display advertisement urging the public of South San Francisco to patronize their home-town stores in their Christmas shopping. The advertising space is contributed cheerfully by this paper to a cause that The Enterprise believes lies or should lie near to the heart of every resident of South San Francisco—that of promoting the growth of the town. That growth can be brought about only by the merchants' prosperity. The question may be raised as to why the appeal was made through display advertising instead of editorially. The answer is that we believe firmly advertisements are read before editorials.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

A Coos county (Oregon) rancher kept $2000 hidden in an old shoe. He cleaned house and dumped all the rubbish in the deep Coos river, including $2000 in the shoe.

There is no longer any excuse for hoarding that sum for fear that it will be lost in banks.

The modern bank is the safest place in the world to keep money and valuables of any kind and incidents like this should bring money out of unsafe hiding places.

SPECIAL TAXES—TAX EXEMPTIONS

Candy and soft drink manufacturers will need 100,000 tons more sugar this year than last, according to President Zabriskie of the Equalization Board.

Consumption of sugar for these purposes this year is estimated at nearly 600,000 tons, more than one-seventh of our total domestic consumption of sugar.

In the face of this candy is classed as a luxury and a 5 per cent excise tax over and above all other taxes is loaded onto the industry, which the consumer must pay. This tax was adopted in extremity of war. It should now be repealed. Special taxes on one line of industry or property and exemption from taxes for others is poor business in any democratic country.

NO FEED, NO FIGHT.

Officers of the United States army are resigning in alarmingly increasing numbers. Over two thousand have returned to civil life within the past few months.

It is a case of no feed, no fight. They are weary of working for one-half what other people receive.

This is no time for congress to haggle and split hairs.

If we are to have an army that army must be decently paid. If it is not so paid we will soon have no army, and with no army to enforce law and order the country will soon be at the mercy of the Reds.

And a Red, we might remark, has the refinement of a buzzard and the mercy of a tiger.

Pay the army a living wage. Common sense and self preservation demand it.

PROSPERITY IN ADVERSITY.

The world is short on production!

This is particularly true of those countries recently locked in the strife of nations. Even our own is included.

Foreign peoples are manifestly not in position to produce in proportion to their requirements for some years to come.

America is.

The sensible thing, then, for America to do is to increase its production, to double, and treble it.

This can be done.

Two essentials to this end are paramount: Quit squabbling among ourselves, and GO TO WORK.

America is rich now. But in a few years, if we all go to work and produce to the limit of our capacity, we will have provided the necessities for which the world cries, and we will have enriched ourselves beyond the dreams of avarice.

Every one will become a plutocrat.

Go to work!

Work harder!

Stay with it!

Your ship will come in and your dream will come true.

WHEN KINGS COME OVER.

The visit of the royal family of Belgium to the United States was somewhat of a disappointment to some people. It has been a matter of gratification to others.

A few years ago a tremendous uproar and fuss would have been raised upon the arrival of a foreign potentate in our midst, and necks would have been strained and stretched to the breaking point in the mad scramble to see a real live king and queen.

Today they attract little more attention than any other people of international importance.

There are so many really great people right here in our own country that the arrival of the elect from other lands is merely an interesting incident in the events of a day.

A few there are who would receive the visitors with all the pomp and glory and tinsel of the old world, but the sane and sensible majority accord this gallant ruler and his family a hospitable and courteous reception, and continue their labors of the day.

The time of idolatrous worship of the anointed has passed.

It will never come again.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

Under this heading The Enterprise will publish, from week to week, a series of excellent recipes written especially for this paper by a woman who has had a university training in domestic science and a wide experience in cooking in her own home. Every recipe has been thoroughly tested and will be found economical and palatable.

Baking Powder Biscuit

2 cups flour measured lightly.
4 teaspoons baking powder.

1 teaspoon salt.

2 tablespoons fat.

Milk or water.

2. Sift dry ingredients.

2. Add fat and cut with two knives or work in with hands until like coarse meal.

3. Add milk or water gradually, stirring it in with a knife to a soft dough.

4. Toss on a floured board, roll out lightly to one-half inch thickness.

5. Shape with biscuit cutter.

6. Place on buttered pan and bake in a hot oven twelve to fifteen minutes.

7. Serve hot on a folded napkin.

If a richer but less light biscuit is desired, four tablespoons fat may be used.

The dough should be as soft as can be used and should be handled very little. If kept before baking, keep in a cold place to prevent the escape of gas from the baking powder.

Variations of baking powder biscuit dough:

Cheese Biscuit

1. Make a baking powder biscuit dough.

2. Divide into two parts.

3. Roll half of dough out about one-fourth inch thick.

4. Sprinkle with grated cheese.

5. Roll out second half of dough and place on top of first.

6. Cut out. If desired, sprinkle with cheese.

7. Bake in hot oven.

These are nice served with salad.

Short Cake Dough

1. Make baking powder biscuit dough, using

4 tablespoons of fat.

1 teaspoon sugar.

2. Mix as for biscuit.

3. Roll or pat out to one-third inch thickness.

4. Cut in large or small rounds as desired.

5. Brush over one piece with melted butter and place another piece on top.

6. Bake in hot oven.

7. When done split open and put fruit between layers and on top.

Fruit for Short Cake

The fruit used should be sweetened and warmed before placing on short cake.

Cream may be added if desired.

Apple Dumplings

1. Make a short cake dough.

2. Roll out one-fourth inch thick.

3. Cut into six-inch squares.

4. Place one-half apple which has been steamed until tender in the center, then fold corners to the center over the apple and pinch edges together.

5. Place on a greased pan and bake in moderate oven until crust is cooked.

6. Serve with lemon or vanilla sauce.

Pinwheel Biscuit

Use short cake dough.

Roll one-fourth inch thick and sprinkle with the following:

Melted butter.

Chopped raisins.

Chopped citron, if desired.

Sugar.

Cinnamon.

Roll like jelly roll and cut into one-inch slices.

Bake in moderate oven.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

No Christmas gift shows loving thought and care like something a dear one has made. Nothing that can be purchased, however expensive, embodies the true spirit of Christmas giving like an article that loving hands have fashioned. Beginning with this issue The Enterprise will each week publish a list of suggestions for Christmas gifts. Most of the articles pictured can be made by any ordinarily clever girl or woman.

Pretty Gift Cushions

Cushions were never so numerous or so beautiful within the memory of the oldest gift seeker as they are now. They are made for chairs, window seats, lounges, couches and the floor, of all sorts of cheerful materials. Here is a handsome specimen in which brocaded and plain satin ribbon are used and embellished with satin-covered cord and a cluster of roses and leaves made of satin ribbon.

A Fad for Flowers

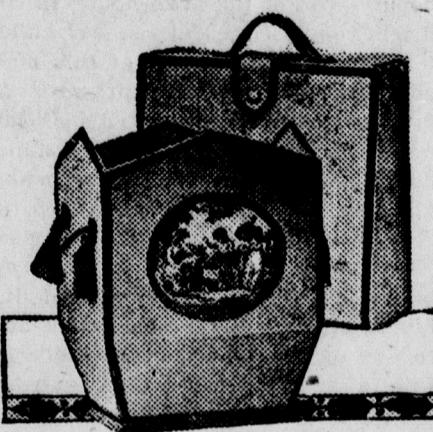

There is a fad for artificial flowers to be used instead of natural flowers for household decoration just now and every home-loving woman will be sure to enjoy a gift of this kind. Small garden roses, nasturtiums and chrysanthemums are great favorites and these particular flowers are cleverly made. They appear in baskets and vases as shown above and make a charming Christmas gift.

Christmas Slippers

The Christmas tree would seem incomplete if it bore no slippers. Above is a group of this year's offerings. At the top is a gay little pair of ribbon slippers for the young girl. In the center there are elderdown bedroom slippers for any member of the family, and just below a pair of satin bootees for baby, lined with plush or elderdown and bordered with fur. At the bottom is a pair of handsome bedroom slippers made of ribbon that will delight any woman.

A new aviation altitude record can't expect so much attention these days when prices are breaking altitude records daily.

For a Man's Desk

If there is anything a man appreciates more than another it is a waste basket to hold things that he doesn't want or a case to hold things that he does want. Here are both these sensible gifts, made to match, and happy is the man who will receive them at Christmas time.

The waste basket has a foundation of very light board, covered with a dull rose-colored tapestry and finished with dark-green braid. Handles with tassels to match prove convenient. A medallion of figured tapestry bound by braid completes this practical and handsome gift. The case for papers is made to match the basket.

Something New in Bags

A basket crocheted of twine and dipped in shellac is allowed to dry, after being shaped to suit the fancy of its maker. It is then adorned with odd yarn flowers, as shown in the picture above, and converted into a pretty bag by lining it with silk and extending the silk above the top of the basket. The silk gathers up at the top on a ribbon. If one cares to present a friend with the ultimate in luxurious laundry bags, this affair will answer, for it will grace any dressing room and serve to catch soiled handkerchiefs and neckwear.

Crochet Lace for Gifts

The girl who knows how to crochet can express much devotion in a gift to relative or friend by making crochet lace to be fashioned into caps, trimming and yokes for nightdresses or underthings, bags and neckwear. A lovely yoke in an Irish crochet pattern, and a crocheted cap appear in the picture above. They take considerable time to make, but will last almost a lifetime. There are many beautiful patterns for this work, which is very popular for gifts.

Milwaukee beer is now making Zion City famous.

A pruning knife seems to be the most essential piece of cutlery in the home these days.

THE GIFT OF GIFTS!

What will you send your son, daughter, or other relative who is away from home this Christmas?

The problem is not a difficult one. Nothing will give them more lasting pleasure than a year's subscription to The Enterprise. It would be to them a weekly letter from home and a constant reminder of your thoughtfulness.

Keep the home fires burning in their memories. You furnish the $2. The Enterprise will furnish the fuel.

Send in your subscription at once so they will get the paper by Christmas Day. Also you will save 50 cents by subscribing before December 1st. If you wish, we will start the subscription just before Christmas.

THE HOOKED RUG.

What has become of the "hooked rug" that once waved over this land of the brave and home of the free lunch? Why does the "hooking fever" nevermore take possession of the deputy-head of the household? In the bright, apple colic days of our childhood the annual arrival of this malady was an event fraught with as grave potentialities as the Republican caucus or soap-making time. Baking, house cleaning, even "setting hens," all were, for the time being, held in abeyance. The members of the household moved, during its sway, in an atmosphere of rug patterns and dye fumes, and ate their meals from any corner of the table not encumbered with a "rug frame." They skipped about the floor like Eliza crossing the ice, to avoid the bundles of rug rags—hectic balls of blue, green, red and yellow that soon were to blossom forth in flora and fauna that Nature in her most tempestuous moods never conceived of.

Well I recall one such floor ornament. Through component parts of its design could be traced much family history.

A broad dash of gray in the hit-or-miss background brings back vivid memories of the author of my being. Loud he protested against that gray suit being so early consigned to a rugly grave—but in vain. It was of an unusual shade of gray and into the rug it went to support the dusty and unfeeling feet of toiling manhood and the gooey, smoky forms of tumbling infancy. Full clearly I remember being laid across certain portions of that gray suit while, my glassy gaze fixed meantime upon the floor, a large and horny palm hammered homely hemelines and rules of rectitude and righteousness into my understanding.

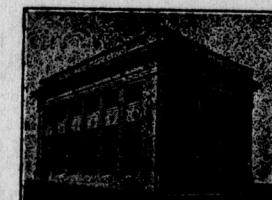

Here a streak of pink marked the last resting place of sister's "party dress." On the night that gladsome creation was first worn its owner went to a "basket social" with a long-legged young Romeo of parts. That night, having been forbidden to attend the aforementioned function because of his extreme youth and inborn aptitude for getting into trouble, a certain freckled-faced youngster with prominent ears climbed into a tree that shaded our front door at about the hour when the gay revelers were expected home, and from that vantage point, himself unseen, learned much that I later put to good use.

There a quivering bar of red indicates the day when the news of the arrival of the first grandchild reached our humble household. Naught but red in long scintillating stripe could express the rug maker's exaltation that day.

Straight across one end a band of blue is all that remains of my first "long pants" suit. Ah, the splendor of that masterpiece of the ready-made artist! Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of me, and I knew it! With what surging emotions I donned that cerulean confection! With what wild hope that because of it a certain pink and white member of a neighboring family might look my way with kindly interest! With what ostentatious unconcern that blue suit strode beside a dainty frock to an ice cream social a few nights later—just as though it were used to doing such things every day of the week and twice on Sunday. Alas! with what grief and humility it trudged homeward, for down the front of that proud toga was a great despair colored ice cream stain which for long thereafter clung to it in spite of frantic gasolined attempts at its removal, a ghastly souvenir of my callow awkwardness. The bottoms of those trousers embraced, even clustered about my feet at first, but, later, as though appalled at the size of those extremities, retreated to some inches above my shoe tops!

That rug was not altogether beautiful to contemplate—its hit-and-miss background looked not unlike the lithograph of an alcoholic liver; the gorgeous flowers in its center would drive a Burbank to seek bululous oblivion; it exhaled an atmosphere of frenzied dyeing, enthusiastic industry, and moth balls, yet many tender memories were bound within its warp and imprisoned within its woof.

Why Your Gas and Electric Light Bills Vary

People Use 4½ Times More Artificial Light in December Than They Do in June

FACTS

shown by the aid of a simple chart prove why YOUR bills for gas and electric light increase as the short days approach.

The chart divides our 24-hour day into three periods. Namely, DAY-LIGHT, ARTIFICIAL LIGHT, and NO LIGHT.

For the average family, artificial light is required from sunset until 10 p. m. (the assumed hour of retiring) and from 6 a. m. until sunrise (during the winter months).

In JUNE, the month of Greatest Daylight, the average daily period of artificial lighting in residences is but 1.41 hours, while in December, the month of Least Daylight, it is 6.45 hours.

Therefore, the average daily period of Artificial Lighting in the home is 4½ TIMES AS GREAT in December as in June.

(By Mrs. S. Mackey, Staff Correspondent of The Enterprise.)

NEWS BREVITIES

YEOMEN TO HAVE TREE FOR CHILDREN CHRISTMAS

Mrs. Schmidt, wife of the local butcher, is recovering from a serious operation performed at the St. Francis Hospital. Her many friends in San Bruno will be glad to learn that she expects to be able to leave the hospital at the end of this week, when she will spend one week recuperating at the home of her sister in San Francisco, after which she will return to her home in San Bruno.

Mr. and Mrs. Buzzard of Hunting-ton had something to give thanks for on Thanksgiving Day, as a fine baby boy arrived at their home in care of Dr. F. H. Smith, November 26th.

Freddy Beltramo got tired of the quiet life of San Bruno and decided to try what Chicago or New York had to offer. But he did not get far on his way. He started Sunday, and Monday the police of San Francisco located him asleep in the family car at Stockton and O'Farrell streets. His mother was notified.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Russell spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Russell's sister, Mrs. J. L. M. Shetterley, of Alameda.

Miss Frances Osborne, sister of O. Osborne of Fourth addition and member of the San Bruno branch of the B. A. Y., who recently had an operation for appendicitis in the Children's Hospital, San Francisco, is reported well again and able to return home.

The Rev. W. Angwin from Burlingame was the preacher at both services of the Methodist church last Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Del Norte Winning.

CENTER CLUB TO HAVE WHIST PARTY AND DANCE

SCHOOLS CLOSE.

San Bruno schools have been closed on account of the appearance of measles in Huntington Park. The pupils were sent home Wednesday, to remain away until further notice.

Subscribe for The Enterprise.

The Center Club of the boys and girls' recreation center will hold its turkey whist party and dance Saturday evening, December 6th, at California Hall. Turkeys and other valuable articles will be offered as prizes. The hall will be decorated in black and gold. Both halls will be used, the lower one for whist, the upper for dancing. The recreation center is making a name for itself in San Mateo and showing what the women of San Bruno can do to uplift the community and give the boys and girls the clean sports and recreation they require.

TO FILTER DRINKING WATER.

Filters are to be installed at the Edgemont school in the hope of purifying the drinking water, which has been the subject of much complaint.

The installation of the filters is the result of agitation by the Parents-Teachers' Association.

LADIES' AID TO MEET.

The Ladies' Aid Society is planning a special meeting to be held Wednesday evening, December 10th. It is hoped that all those who helped at the recent "Old Maids' Convention" will be present.

CHURCH NOTICE (Methodist).

After an enforced vacation of two weeks the pastor, Rev. Del Norte Winning, will again occupy his pulpit Sunday. Regular services will be conducted.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preparation is now being made for the Christmas season. The lesson topic is "Gethsemane."

Morning worship, 11 a. m. Subject, "Confession."

The Epworth League services are inspirational to old and young. Topic, "The Message."

In the evening at 7:30 the pastor will discuss "What Being a Christian Means Today."

Friday evening, December 12th, Dr.

G. W. White, district superintendent of the San Francisco district, will preside at the first quarterly conference at the church.

NAME OF HALL CHANGED.

The name of "Green's" Hall has been changed to "California" Hall, so when notices of dances and parties appear in The Enterprise as to be held at California Hall do not think the paper has made a mistake, but go to the old Green's Hall. The new owners of California Hall are making many improvements in the hall to make it an up-to-date meeting place.

NEWLYWEDS SURPRISED AT SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO HOME

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Foraker, formerly of San Bruno but now of South San Francisco, surprised them at their home a few nights since. Those from San Bruno in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Scharfe, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Hedburg, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Barnette, and Miss Claire Forster.

The Enterprise will fill your orders for Christmas cards. No need of buying such cards outside of this city. We print cards that will please you.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

MAIL FOR SANTA TO BE DELIVERED

Santa Claus letters addressed to the San Francisco postoffice may be answered this year if some charitable organization or reputable individuals request Postmaster Charles W. Fay for them.

Postmaster Fay has received notice from the postmaster-general that these letters do not have to be destroyed as in the past. The instructions are as follows:

Postmasters are authorized to deliver all letters on which the postage has been fully prepaid arriving at their respective postoffices during the month of December which are addressed plainly and unmistakably to "Santa Claus," without any other terms or expressions identifying the person for whom such letters are intended, to responsible institutions or reputable individuals in the town or city of address who may desire to use them exclusively for philanthropic purposes.

Letters of the character described addressed for local delivery on which the postage is wholly unpaid or paid less than full rate also may be delivered to such institutions or individuals upon the payment of the charges with which they are chargeable.

In the event the letters are requested by more than one institution or individual, the postmaster shall distribute them in such proportion as he may think advisable. If there are no voluntary requests the letters will be sent to the dead letter office.

A word to the wise: ADVERTISE IN THE ENTERPRISE.

TAKES FIGHT AGAINST STATION TO R. R. COM.

Howard P. Black of 1015 San Mateo drive, Burlingame, has appealed to the Railroad Commission for an order preventing the city trustees of Burlingame erecting a passenger station for Southern Pacific and United Railroads travelers on the site selected by the trustees. Black, who says he speaks on behalf of himself and forty-eight other residents of Burlingame, bases his objection on the ground that the erection of a building on the site selected by the trustees will work a hardship on a large number of property owners, injure their property and prevent direct access across Broadway. He is willing to have the present station moved, but wants it anchored to the north or south of the site selected by the trustees.

MORE ARRESTS FOR KILLING SMALL BIRDS

The mill of Judge W. J. Smith's court continues to grind a grist of fines for violators of game laws. The killing of small song birds and "kildeer" or shore birds are the most common offenses, with now and then a hunter arrested for being without a license.

Monday Arazio Luchetti was fined $25 for killing shore birds. John Fisolo paid $25 for the same sport. Domenico Baccelli paid $25 for killing rabbits out of season, the act having been committed last July.

Tuesday Frank Tait, C. Shell, James Dixon and J. L. Witzel, all of whom were cited last week for killing "shore birds," appeared. Tait paid $15, Shell $30 and Dixon $15. Witzel, in whose machine dead birds were found by Game Warden Burke, was given the benefit of the doubt when he declared he did not kill the birds but that Shell had placed them there. Shell corroborated this. As Tait paid his fine he made some remarks that moved Judge Smith to warn him that he had thirty days staring him in the face unless he kept still. Pietra Bachigalupi did not appear and forfeited $25 bail, while Domenico Tanga paid $25 for slaying kildeer. Adolph Molinini, Antonio Feradio, R. Bellini, and Louis Santini will appear Friday to answer for similar offenses.

AN ATTRACTIVE WINDOW.

Curusis & Co., the Grand avenue provision dealers, have a window display this week that small boys have trouble in passing and that older persons stop to admire. Pyramids of beautiful red apples are alternated with mounds of yellow oranges and grapefruit in a way that is most striking. The whole entwined with holly breathes a spirit of Christmas cheer.

In the agitation to which the English language has been submitted, even the hyphen has been stirred up again. Mager have also been guests at the Ditton home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cummings have returned from Los Angeles. They are living in their home in Peck's Lots.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Killeen of Seattle have come to South San Francisco to make their home. Mr. Killeen is employed at the steel works.

A. P. Bellisle of San Mateo, formerly connected with the San Mateo News-Leader but now in the insurance business, was a visitor in this city Tuesday and dropped into The Enterprise office. Like most men who have at some time been in the newspaper game, Mr. Bellisle likes now and then to get a sniff of printer's ink.
